

Marquis Motorhomes, one of the the UK's largest motorhome dealers, has recently been awarded a franchise for the Eddis Motorhomes Autoquest range. The 2010 Autoquest currently has a range of eight models:

The 100 4 berth

The 115 2 berth

The 120 2 berth

The 130 5 berth

The 140 2 berth

The 145 4 berth

The 155 2 berth

The 180 6 berth

In addition Marquis plans to introduce an Exclusive range built by Eddis in the near future Ranging in price from just £28,999.00 for the 100 to £32,999.00 for the top of the range 180, these represent an excellent value for money range of entry-level motorhomes to suit the needs of every motorhome buyer.

Unlike many other motorhomes, the Autoquest is built on one of three standard Peugeot chassis and is not modified. This results in a motorhome renowned for its solid build and unrivalled driving qualities.

The Eddis range has recently re-branded and will be available at four Marquis dealerships in Berkshire, Devon, Suffolk and Sussex, but can be purchased and collected at any of the Marquis Motorhome dealerships who will also offer warranty and servicing facilities for all current and future Eddis purchasers.
